Re: USA v. Anthony Prince, Dkt. 05 CR 1067(KMK)

Dear Judge Karas:

I represent Anthony Prince, whose sentencing is scheduled for January 11, 2008. Pursuant to my telephone conversation with Alicia of Your Honor's chambers this letter is being faxed to the number referenced above.

I respectfully request a postponement of the referenced sentencing. I have conferred with A.U.S.A. Danya Perry who does not object to this request.

In a telephone conversation with Ms. Perry today it became apparent that there exists a highly unusual issue that bears on sentencing. While the parties have been generally aware of this unusual issue, the defense believes that we can only fully address the issue if we obtain disclosure of sensitive information that has heretofore been unavailable to the defense. The government and defense have worked out an amicable arrangement that will allow the defense to obtain disclosure of the information. I have arranged an appointment with Ms. Perry that will take place at 10:00 a.m. on January 10, 2008 so that I may review the information. I will require some additional time thereafter to review with my client the issues that may be implicated by the information I obtain and to address the issues in a submission to the Court for sentencing, if necessary.

As Your Honor will observe, this matter has been adjourned several times. While counsel has experienced some disruptive personal matters in December that may have necessitated this request, including an unexpected relocation of my family's residence, it is the new information being brought to my attention that now necessitates this postponement request. I will then be able to thoroughly review some potentially important issues, confer with my incarcerated client about them, and fully address the issues to the Court in a written submission.

With respect to scheduling, A.U.S.A. Perry has advised me that the date of February 6, 2008 may be a convenient sentencing date for her office and the Court, as the Court has a sentencing scheduled to take place in another matter on that date at the United States Courthouse at 500 Pearl Street. If February 6, 2008 is not available or acceptable, the defense respectfully requests any date after February 6, 2008 that is convenient for the Court and the government.

Accordingly, it is respectfully requested that this matter be adjourned for sentencing to a date on or after February 6, 2008 that is convenient for the Court and the parties.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert J. Krakow
